FOREWORD

When we are graduated, the doors of Naruna High School close behind us forever. Never again can we call this school ours, except in the past tense, for we have taken a step forward and another class will move up to take the place we left vacant. With this in mind we have published the "Lone Pine" so that we will be able to look back over our high school days, cherishing each friendship and task, and then, the sweetest thing of all---memories.

SENIOR PLAY

When Sally Comes to Town, the senior class play by Charles George, was a typical three act farce with some of the funniest lines and situations ever put into a play of this type.

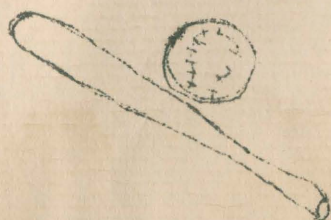

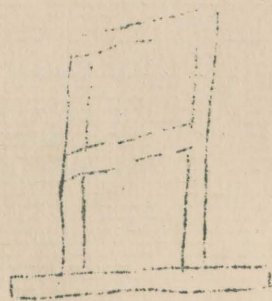

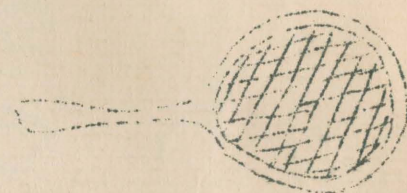

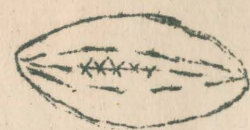

The country relatives, Uncle Josh (Benton) and Sally, (Ada Mae) were about as welcome as a case of smallpox in the Parker home. The Parkers deliberately tried to humiliate them but these wholesome country people came up smiling after every insult. Sally, in her simple way showed up the society folk to be the vain artificial people they were and made them heartily ashamed.
